

Pre-wedding Cocktail Evening

At weddings, there are often family guests who have not met for some time and even guests who have never met before

Why not have a pre wedding get together for guests to meet and reconnect.

An afternoon high tea or an evening cocktail hour are great occasions where everyone can come together for a designated time. We can happily organize a few 'ice breaker games' that gets guests chatting and laughing.

It is a great way to ensure that guests are much more relaxed and mingle far more readily and easily at the actual wedding.

Very conveniently located at the front of our resort is Café@Toscana, a pretty little licensed cafe overlooking the twinkling lights of the village and the blue waters of Pioneer Bay out to the whitsunday islands and beyond.

Used exclusively for guests of the resort, the function room/cafe and its wonderful outlook makes for a very pleasant setting while creating an intimate and friendly atmosphere.
